RE: Banned show to continue despite local protests.

Sheriff/Mayor John H. Houghton announced in a press release this afternoon that "The Uncle Albert Traveling Multiverse Show," which has been banned nationally, will proceed as scheduled on September 10th at the renowned Belle Mehus Auditorium.

This decision comes despite opposition from Rev. E.A.H. Hargreaves, a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who has urged the public to protest against the event, labeling it a mockery of the community's Christian values. Rev. E.A.H. Hargreaves articulates that the community's discontent regarding the upcoming event stems from its reliance on dubious modern scientific claims.

These claims aim to persuade the audience of the existence of a hidden dimension, which Mister Albert describes as the "Multiverse," purportedly existing beyond the boundaries of our divinely created universe.

Sheriff/Mayor John H. Houghton addressed the concerns raised by Bismarck's religious leaders by affirming the fundamental principle of free speech in America.

He emphasized that every citizen possesses an inherent right to express their opinions openly, regardless of how absurd those views may seem, and should do so without the threat of censorship or reprisal.
Sheriff/Mayor John H. Houghton stated that Deputy Sheriff George Piepkorn has been tasked with ensuring the upcoming "Prayer Vigil" Rally is conducted peacefully and respects Mr. Albert's constitutional rights.
Additionally, he has requested Dr. William H. McGowan, the lead physician at St. Alexius Hospital, to have medical personnel on standby in case of any unforeseen incidents of violence or injury, a scenario he fervently hopes will not occur.

The ongoing debate surrounding the "Uncle Albert Traveling Multiverse Show" can be traced back to its prohibition in various locations worldwide, a situation that began in 1924.
This initial shutdown occurred following complaints to the City of London's health authorities, which were prompted by a significant outbreak of illnesses among audience members.
Although it was never demonstrated that Mister Albert intentionally caused or induced any of the illnesses associated with his show, this situation has highlighted the ongoing need for caution among city permit authorities when considering approvals for such events.

Mister Albert, a renowned explorer and mystical guru, posits that our existence is confined within a limited bubble, isolated by a membrane of magnetic and harmonic frequencies.

This barrier largely prevents CIS Humanity from transcending into the true universe, with only a few exceptional cases managing to breach this separation.

Numerous prominent scientific critics argue that he lacks substantial evidence for the existence of the "Multiverse," asserting that his claims rely solely on what they perceive as skillfully manipulated photography and his attempts to reference the equally unverified concept of "Quantum Physics."

Mister Albert recently sparked significant controversy among his religious critics and scholars after allegedly stating in a Chicago newspaper article that while believers assert the existence of God without having seen Him, relying on faith and unproven science, they can, somehow, question his belief in the Multiverse despite his application of the same rationale. This provocative comparison challenges the consistency of their arguments and invites a deeper examination of the standards used to validate differing beliefs.

The upcoming three nights at the Belle Mehus Auditorium are poised to become the highlight of Bismarck's fall social calendar.

The manager of the Belle Mehus has requested that I inform you that, while the opening night is fully booked, advance reserved seat tickets for the performances on the second and third nights remain available for a modest price of twenty-five cents.

It is important to note that tickets purchased at the box office on the night of the performance will cost fifty cents, with no guarantee of seat availability. The box office is currently open for advance ticket sales every day from 9 AM to 4 PM.
